Become a Member Today!

CCRH membership provides:

- Advocacy in the State Legislature and at the Department of Housing and Community Development , USDA Rural Development, Strategic Growth Council, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, Tax Credit Allocation Committee, and other governmental agencies.
- 'Action Alert Network' with updates on federal and state housing programs and mobilization of local organizations and individuals. We build broad-based coalitions with environmentalists, growers, local governments, and other constituencies .
- Training and informational forums, including housing program design and implementation, grant writing, smart growth and energy-efficiency, and inclusionary housing programs.
- Technical assistance to nonprofit housing organizations and rural local planning and housing officials.
- Projects to promote leadership development, asset-building, elder financial security, and sustainable rural communities.
- Access to our extensive research on rural housing data and critical public policy information.
- Tribal-specific representation, advocacy, and technical assistance for state resources, and facilitation of collaboration between tribal entities and nonprofit affordable housing developers.
