

CCRH Membership

Become a Member Today!

CCRH membership provides:

- Affordable housing policy and program advocacy in the California Legislature and Congress, as well as with Federal, State, and local housing agencies and other governmental bodies.
- 'Action Alert Network' with updates on Federal and State affordable housing programs and mobilization of local communities and individuals. We build broad-based coalitions with racial equity organizations, environmentalists, growers, local governments, labor, and other constituencies.
- Training and informational forums, including affordable housing program design and implementation, grant-writing, smart growth and energy-efficiency, and inclusionary housing programs.
- Technical assistance to nonprofit affordable housing organizations, rural local planning and housing officials, and grassroots community groups.
- Projects to promote leadership development, asset-building, elder financial security, housing preservation, disaster recovery, and sustainable rural communities.
- Access to our extensive research on rural housing data and critical public policy information.
- Tribal-specific representation, advocacy, and technical assistance for increased State resources and facilitation of collaborations between Tribal entities and nonprofit affordable housing developers.
- Engagement in defining and setting racial equity priorities for the rural housing sector.
